Celebrating the Nonviolent Legacy of Yolanda D. King through the Arts!

(Film Screening and Arts Showcase)
Time: 11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. FREE Open to the Public
The King Center Freedom Hall – Atlanta, GA

This day was created to honor the legacy of Yolanda Denise King, her love of cultural affairs and the arts, and her commitment to nonviolence. The King Center will digitally showcase submissions of visual art for youth, 5-25 years of age, related to peace and choosing nonviolence. Submission forms will soon be available on The King Center website. The King Center, in partnership with the National Park Service, will screen three documentaries followed by audience discussions as examples of how nonviolence can be expressed through film.

11:00am - "The Loving Story" is the inspiration and heartwarming story of Mildred and Richard Loving, an interracial couple who married in 1958 despite Virginia's miscegenation laws.

1:15 pm - "The Trials of Muhammad Ali" covers Ali's toughest bout: his battle to overturn a five-year prison sentence for refusing US military service in Vietnam.

(Film Screening and Arts Show continue...)

3:45 pm - "Girl Rising" tells the stories of nine girls from different parts of the world who face arranged marriages, child slavery, and other heartbreaking injustices.

BOOKS BY MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

COLLECTIONS OF
DR. KING'S WRITINGS AND SPEECHES

Stride Toward Freedom: The Montgomery Story. New York: Harper & Row Publishers, 1958. Dr. King's first book; the story of the Montgomery Bus Boycott and the beginning of the Nonviolent Civil Rights Movement.

www.thekingcenter.org

The Trumpet of Conscience. New York: Harper & Row Publishers, 1968. (Foreword by Coretta Scott King.) This book is taken from the 1967 Massey Lectures which King gave through the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. King addresses issues including the Vietnam War, youth and civil disobedience and concludes with the "Christmas Sermon for Peace."

www.thekingcenter.org

A Testament of Hope. San Francisco: Harper & Row Publishers, 1986. A collection of quotations by Dr. King selected by Mrs. Coretta Scott King focusing on seven areas of concern: The Community of Man, Racism, Civil Rights, Justice and Freedom, Faith and Religion, Nonviolence and Peace.

www.thekingcenter.org

Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community? New York: Harper & Row Publishers, 1967. An assessment of America's priorities and a warning that they need to be re-ordered.

www.thekingcenter.org

The Autobiography of Martin Luther King, Jr. This history-making autobiography is Martin Luther King in his own words: the mild-mannered, inquisitive child and student who chafed under and eventually rebelled against segregation; the dedicated young minister who continually questioned the depths of his faith and the limits of his wisdom.

www.thekingcenter.org

"Thou, Dear God": Prayers That Open Hearts And Spirits The prayers of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. carefully compiled in 'Thou, Dear God' speak to the journey and challenges of a prophetic spirit in the midst of turbulent circumstances.

www.thekingcenter.org

A Call to Conscience: The Landmark Speeches of Martin Luther King, Jr. This collection includes the text of Dr. King's best-known oration, 'I Have a Dream,' his acceptance speech for the Nobel Peace Prize, and 'Beyond Vietnam,' a compelling argument for ending the ongoing conflict.

The Words of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Martin Luther King, Jr., had hoped to be a Baptist preacher in a Southern city. Instead, by the time he was assassinated in 1968 at the age of 39, he had been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize and had led millions of people in a nonviolent movement that shattered forever the Southern system of segregation of the races.

A Knock At Midnight: Inspiration from the Great Sermons of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. This is the definitive collection of eleven of Dr. King's most powerful sermons, from his earliest known audio recording to his last sermon, delivered days before his assassination.

The King Center is a nonprofit organization dedicated to educating a global network of allied individuals and organizations to use Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s philosophy and methods of nonviolence to collectively create the Beloved Community he envisioned. Established in 1968 by Coretta Scott King as a living memorial dedicated to the preservation and advancement of the work of Martin Luther King, Jr., the King Center provides member organizations with information about the King Holiday, and a wide range of resources on or about Dr. King.

More than 1 million visitors are drawn annually to the King Center to pay homage to Dr. King, to view a unique exhibit of his personal memorabilia and to visit the King Center's Library and Archives. Visitors often include heads of state, foreign dignitaries, diplomats, and international tourists representing diverse backgrounds, cultures, races, and religious. The King Center also holds an official "observer status" with the United Nations and continues to reach out beyond its physical boundaries in its quest to promote the life, legacy, and philosophy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The King Center's Bookstore and Resource Center offers a vast array of books, audio and videotapes. It is also the source of King Center sanctioned holiday promotional and commemorative materials to be utilized for the Holiday Observance. Select items are available for customization by organizations. Our Bookstore and Resource Center maintains a Shop on our website and groups and individuals are encouraged to visit the Shop when planning your events.

VISION: The King Center envisions a world where global brotherhood and sisterhood are not a dream but the state of humankind.

MISSION: The King Center serves as the premier resource dedicated to educating a global network of allied individuals and organizations working collectively using the philosophy and methods of nonviolence to create the Beloved Community that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. envisioned.
